

PHOTOS

Visit WKH & KLOUGHERTY for a variety of non-copyrighted pictures that you can use and share like the ones below.

Children's Week Florida™ celebrates and honors its commitment to children and advocates.

SOCIAL MEDIA SAMPLES

You can use hashtags when posting on any social media platform.

Use the hashtags below to promote Children's Week Florida:

#childrensweekFL

#ChildrensWeekFLParter2021

#AllHandsonDeckCWFL

#AdvocatesforChildren

#FLYouth&Families

Twitter Posts

Please tag the Children's Week Florida Twitter page in your posts by typing "@ChildrensWeek" and selecting the correct page.

1. Tell lawmakers to get #AllHandsonDeckCWFL for Florida's children, youth and families! A family friendly art project that can make a big difference. Get more info: childrensweek.org/index.php/events/children-s-week/hanging-of-the-hands
1. We are proud partners of @ChildrensWeek, a celebration and advocacy event for Florida's youth! See you there: childrensweek.org
2. Get to the State Capitol for @ChildrensWeek and show your commitment for our most precious gifts: childrensweek.org
3. It's all about the kids at @ChildrensWeek! Join us for fun, free events for the entire family: childrensweek.org
4. See you in April 2021 for @ChildrensWeek: come play, learn, and more! childrensweek.org
5. Be an advocate for Florida's children, youth, and families @ChildrensWeek: childrensweek.org

Children's Week Florida™ celebrates and honors its commitment to children and advocates.

Facebook Posts

Please tag the Children's Week Facebook page in your posts by typing the “@flchildrensweek” and then selecting the correct page.

1. Contribute to an impressive display of children's hand artwork in the State Capitol Rotunda to remind lawmakers to take care of Florida's children and youth during this legislative session. Help your children trace, cut-out, and decorate drawings of their hands and mail their artwork to @flchildrensweek coordinators. Find out more here: childrensweek.org/index.php/events/children-s-week/hanging-of-the-hands #AllHandsonDeckCWFL
2. We are proud to partner with @flchildrensweek to help advocate for the needs of Florida's children and youth! Come on out to the State Capitol April 5 - April 9 for a variety of fun, free, interactive activities for the entire family. Learn more: childrensweek.org #ChildrensWeekFLParter2021
3. Don't miss @flchildrensweek, the largest annual event at Florida's Capitol! Celebrate, get engaged, and advocate for Florida's children and youth. For more information: childrensweek.org #AdvocatesforChildren #FLYouth&Families
4. Every year, thousands gather at the Florida Capitol for Children's Week Florida – a special celebration of our state's children, youth, and families. We are happy to partner with @flchildrensweek. Join us April 5 – April 9. You can learn more here: childrensweek.org #FLYouth&Families #childrensweekFL

Instagram

- Take any picture from our website (under media tab) or from any of our social media pages by saving them and/or taking a screen shot. You can also save any images from events in this document or the photo galleries on the Children's Week website.
- Click on #ChildrensWeek and share any photos that have been previously shared by users.
- Use any of the corresponding captions when sharing an image (see Twitter and Facebook sections above).

Children's Week Florida™ celebrates and honors its commitment to children and advocates.